ACTIVITY
22-24 Mos.

SIMON SAYS

WHY DO THIS ACTIVITY

To teach the children to follow simple directions
To encourage children to learn more ways to move their bodies by imitating (copying)

HOW TO DO THIS ACTIVITY

1. Tell your child that the name of this game is Simon Says.

2. Tell her that whenever you say Simon Says, followed by an action, she will need to copy you.

3. Show her how to do it by saying something such as:

   Simon Says clap your hands.
   (Clap your hands)

4. Some other things you can do are: stomp your feet, pretend you are a bird or an airplane, roll over, skip, run the bases, throw the ball into the basket, etc.

5. Do three or four of these. Praise your child when she copies you.

6. When she is older, you can have her be Simon and you will copy her.
